

Through the kindness of friends, The Mahoning Dispatch will make weekly visits to many new homes the coming year. There is still room on the list and we shall be glad to send the paper to any address you may send.

The Mahoning Dispatch

MANY JOB PRINTING ORDERS

Are coming to The Mahoning Dispatch job printing department. And there are reasons, among them being satisfactory work, prompt service and reasonable prices. Let The Dispatch have an opportunity to execute your next order for printed matter.

VOL. XXXIX. NO. 5.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, APRIL 30, 1915.

$1.00 A YEAR

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By CLARENCE BAKER

Harry Tellow was a Salem visitor Saturday.

Homer Mullen of Garfield visited Lena Barrow Sunday.

Some very fine gardens may be seen in different parts of town.

Miss Lena Barrow visited friends in Salem a few days last week.

John Lewis set out ten thousand strawberry plants last week.

Miss Lena Barrow visited friends in Salem a few days last week.

Miss Mary Watson is visiting her sister in Salem for a few days.

Misses Epha and Kathryn Wilson were Salem shoppers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weikart of Leetonia visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Dave Klingensmith and son Earl were Salem callers Saturday.

Homer Heinzelman and Will Kennedy called on Fred Brudery Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Brady of Pittsburgh is visiting at her home here this week.

Mrs. John Davis had a carpet rag saving at her home last Thursday night.

Frank Stouffer and Mr. Denner are resetting a young orchard east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grimm of Salem were Sunday guests of Mrs. Laura Grimm.

Misses Alma Metz and Nellie Helt of Leetonia visited Miss Emma Culler Sunday.

The May term of common pleas court will convene in Lisbon next Monday.

Stanley Goletz of Sharon was a Sunday visitor of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roller spent last week visiting relatives in Girard and Youngstown.

About 80 pupils of District No. 2 took the Boxwell examination here last Saturday.

Mrs. Roy Grimm is able to be out again after being confined to the house with a bad cold.

Mrs. Thomas Burdick of Lisbon visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowker, Sunday.

Miss Alice Platt spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend, Miss Ruth Smedley, in Salem.

Miss Ruth Smedley of Salem called on her mother, Mrs. Herbert Smedley, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charity Roller of Columbiana spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boston.

Mrs. Samantha Simpson of Alliance is spending a few days this week with Mrs. Liddle Frederick.

A. L. Taylor was a caller at the home of Norman Blair's at McCracken Corners last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rohrer of High street are the proud parents of a daughter born Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Greenwalt of Salem called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Stouffer last Sunday.

David Weikart and James Weikart attended the funeral of Reuben Huffman at Homeworth last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer.

Ansel Senheiser, Jacob Parry, James Paisley, John Fynes and Edwin Johnson motored to Youngstown Sunday.

Mrs. John Walters of Salem and Mrs. Elizabeth Newhouse of Franklin Square spent Saturday with Mrs. Harvey Baker.

In nearly every part of this county steps have been taken to drive out saloons when the next local option election is held.

David Klingensmith accompanied the children of the Lutheran and M. E. Sunday schools to the woods for flowers last Sunday.

Misses Sadie Simpson, Marie Barclay and Isabelle Bauer of Sebring spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mat Simpson.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Harris, personal workers from Salem, took charge of the services held in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

The social held by the Christian Endeavor Society of the Lutheran church, last Saturday night, was well attended. They realized $20.50.

Prof. J. L. Gray of Beloit, district school superintendent, was here last Saturday and conducted the examination of pupils in the eighth grade.

Indications point to a large attendance at the Township Sunday school convention to be held Sunday in the Washingtonville Methodist church.

Misses Grace Weikart and Kate Simpson attended a shower for Miss Florence Spencer at the home of Miss Grace Ruhl in Salem last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Albert Graham and little son Albert returned to her home in Cleveland last Saturday, after a four weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJare.

Sixteen lady friends and neighbors surprised Mrs. Nora Longbottom on her birthday last Friday night. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies.

Attorney Charles S. Speaker of Lisbon and Hon. Percy Tellow of Washingtonville will deliver the principal addresses at the Memorial day service to be held at the Riverview and Spring Grove cemeteries, East Liverpool, Monday, May 31.

In a head on collision between a Youngstown & Ohio River railroad interurban car and a work train of three cars on a curve, one mile south of Lisbon, Monday night, fifteen people were injured. Six of the injured were taken to a hospital in East Liverpool, while others only slightly hurt returned to Lisbon. Wallace M. Payne, Wells Fargo express messenger, who is in a hospital in Youngstown, was reported as greatly improved Wednesday. Reports Wednesday from East Liverpool were that the wreck victims remained in the hospital Tuesday night. The officials have discharged work train motorman Charles Finch of Lisbon as being responsible for the wreck.

Howard Stouffer was in Youngstown Saturday.

Misses Lizzie and Annie Brady were Youngstown visitors today.

Mike Brady of Cecil, W. Va., is here visiting his sisters, the Misses Brady.

John Lindsey of Leetonia visited friends in Washingtonville Saturday evening.

Quite a number of village young people attended the circus in Salem Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner and Mrs. Frank Stouffer visited the nursery in Salem last Monday.

The Women's Home Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Percy Tellow next Friday evening.

Mrs. Joe Fitzpatrick spent a few days last week with her brother, W. H. Kyle, in Alliance.

Ira Schurenberger and family moved Tuesday from his father's farm north of town to Mrs. Reed's property on Market street.

Mrs. J. C. Weikart and daughter Clara and Mrs. David Weikart and daughter Grace were Leetonia callers last Sunday afternoon.

Quite a number from here will inspect the new chapel of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Leetonia Friday evening. The chapel will be dedicated Sunday with appropriate ceremonies.

Mrs. George Summerville fell from a step ladder last Friday, spraining an ankle. She was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amelita Thompson, in Salem where she is being cared for.

The wedding of Florence Spencer of Salem and John Manchester of Ellsworth was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Spencer, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Congratulations.

The Smart Set Sewing Club was entertained at the home of Miss Grace Weikart Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in music and fancy work.

Mrs. Carl Weikart of Leetonia was the prize winner in the contest. The hostess served an elegant lunch. The out of town guests were Mrs. Carl Weikart, Mrs. Claire Wagie, Misses Mabel Smith and Lucy Wood of Leetonia.

Last Saturday morning the eighth-grade pupils of District No. 2, rural schools, in charge of Supl. Gray, came to Washingtonville to take the examination for admission to high school.

There were sixty-five girls and boys, a happy, healthy, wide-awake group of children. We desire to compliment them on their very good behavior and to wish for them a successful outcome of their day's work. Much credit is due parents and teachers, some of whom came with the pupils for the earnestness and enthusiasm shown in school work.

Contractors C. M. Calvin and Chas. Hemrick were recent business callers on the island.

Morgan Bros. are busy grading Chestnut Ridge, east of Salem, on the Gov. Cox Market Road.

Sam Rupert quit farming to accept a position in the Columbiana rubber works.

H. H. Calvin and family called at D. R. Lehman's Sunday.

Noah Bixler and his force of men built Henry Lehman's concrete cellar wall last week.

Harry Cull recently took possession of the farm formerly owned by Sam Harrold.

Mrs. Amanda Calvin and Miss Mollie Lehman recently called on Miss Alta Lehman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehman and daughter Alta spent Sunday with H. L. Burns in East Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ohl of Austintown and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stroup and son, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward of Warren and Newton Petry spent Sunday at H. A. Stroup's.

Mrs. Tibbits and Mrs. Edith Callender visited here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mohrman spent last week in Youngstown.

John Cole has erysipelas.

George Ewing sold a valuable team of horses to Cleveland parties.

Ephraim Klingensmith is building a cottage for Z. K. Jones.

School closes Friday.

Henry Russell, who has been sick for several weeks, was in Warren Sunday consulting a specialist from Columbus.

Mrs. Soule Fisk has returned home after having spent the winter in Columbus.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

ISLAND

April 28—Adam Wenger saw the orchard demonstration in Boardman last week.

Edwin Weaver and sisters Malissa and Ida, Israel, Amos, Lena and Stella Wenger were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Weaver.

Noah Bixler has the contract to build Isaac Wilmer's barn.

Ira Horst and family spent Sunday with Nick Stempfl and wife.

George Burrier is spending several days in Carrollton.

Norman Lehman called on Adin and Samuel Martin, Sunday.

Delightful showers and fine growing weather these days. The thermometer registered 57 in the shade Monday.

S. G. McClain and wife, Nellie Reichard and daughter Esther called on friends in East Lewistown Sunday.

Mrs. Laura Klingensmith spent Saturday night in Salem taking care of her father, Abner Metzger, who is quite poorly.

E. S. Knapp and David Calvin are keeping islanders supplied with fresh fish.

S. S. Brubaker has been notified to report in Youngstown May 3 as a petit juror.

Glen Bertolette had a desk phone placed in his office last Friday.

S. R. Martin and family and Alvin Detroit and family spent Sunday at J. C. Martin's in Columbiana.

Fred Brudery bought Herman Coy's Ford automobile.

Adam Wenger and Mrs. Salome Weaver and daughter Agnes visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shwalter Sunday.

I. A. Schurenberger and family now live in Washingtonville. He is our rural mail carrier and found that one cannot be in the employ of Uncle Sam and handle a large farm successfully at the same time.

Miss Verda Detrow is suffering with typhoid fever.

Miss Marie Weikart will close her term of school at Oak Dale May 7 and extends an invitation to the parents of pupils and others interested to attend the exercises given by Young America on the closing day.

Walter Detrow has quite the Mullen Co. in Salem on account of failing health by being too closely confined.

Contractors C. M. Calvin and Chas. Hemrick were recent business callers on the island.

Morgan Bros. are busy grading Chestnut Ridge, east of Salem, on the Gov. Cox Market Road.

Sam Rupert quit farming to accept a position in the Columbiana rubber works.

H. H. Calvin and family called at D. R. Lehman's Sunday.

Noah Bixler and his force of men built Henry Lehman's concrete cellar wall last week.

Harry Cull recently took possession of the farm formerly owned by Sam Harrold.

Mrs. Amanda Calvin and Miss Mollie Lehman recently called on Miss Alta Lehman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehman and daughter Alta spent Sunday with H. L. Burns in East Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ohl of Austintown and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stroup and son, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward of Warren and Newton Petry spent Sunday at H. A. Stroup's.

Mrs. Tibbits and Mrs. Edith Callender visited here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mohrman spent last week in Youngstown.

John Cole has erysipelas.

George Ewing sold a valuable team of horses to Cleveland parties.

Ephraim Klingensmith is building a cottage for Z. K. Jones.

School closes Friday.

Henry Russell, who has been sick for several weeks, was in Warren Sunday consulting a specialist from Columbus.

Mrs. Soule Fisk has returned home after having spent the winter in Columbus.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

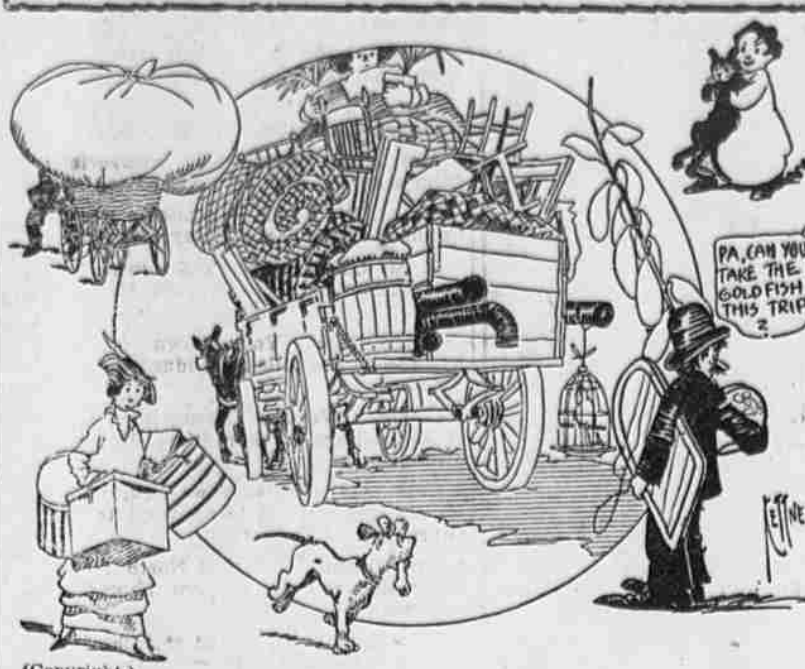

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

THE MOVIES

BERLIN CENTER

April 28—Miss Theo Felmgie and Miss Johnson were in Sebring last Friday night attending the county high school literary contest. The Sebring school representatives made a fine record in the contest, winning places in three of the contests. Miss Vernis Eckis was in North Lima representing the Berlin school and she did well.

Commencement exercises of our school will be held this evening in the M. E. Church after which the Ladies' Aid Society will serve refreshments.

Miss Marie Weikart will close her term of school at Oak Dale May 7 and extends an invitation to the parents of pupils and others interested to attend the exercises given by Young America on the closing day.

Walter Detrow has quite the Mullen Co. in Salem on account of failing health by being too closely confined.

Contractors C. M. Calvin and Chas. Hemrick were recent business callers on the island.

Morgan Bros. are busy grading Chestnut Ridge, east of Salem, on the Gov. Cox Market Road.

Sam Rupert quit farming to accept a position in the Columbiana rubber works.

H. H. Calvin and family called at D. R. Lehman's Sunday.

Noah Bixler and his force of men built Henry Lehman's concrete cellar wall last week.

Harry Cull recently took possession of the farm formerly owned by Sam Harrold.

Mrs. Amanda Calvin and Miss Mollie Lehman recently called on Miss Alta Lehman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehman and daughter Alta spent Sunday with H. L. Burns in East Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ohl of Austintown and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stroup and son, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward of Warren and Newton Petry spent Sunday at H. A. Stroup's.

Mrs. Tibbits and Mrs. Edith Callender visited here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mohrman spent last week in Youngstown.

John Cole has erysipelas.

George Ewing sold a valuable team of horses to Cleveland parties.

Ephraim Klingensmith is building a cottage for Z. K. Jones.

School closes Friday.

Henry Russell, who has been sick for several weeks, was in Warren Sunday consulting a specialist from Columbus.

Mrs. Soule Fisk has returned home after having spent the winter in Columbus.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.

Miss Rutheda Goldner was home from Warren last and family expect to leave about the middle of May for California where they will make their home. Mr. Shafer has not been in good health for several years and the change is made for his benefit.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by a minister from Youngstown.

Grant Foulk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherline of Warren were here Sunday.